Faithful Citizenship

In 2015, the US Conference of Catholic Bishops approved and published the document Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship to help Catholics form their consciences in accordance with the truth, so that they could make good moral choices. The bishops do not tell Catholics how to vote. That responsibility rests with each person and his or her properly formed conscience. Each week leading up to the elections, we will highlight key items in the document:

Existing Laws

When morally flawed laws already exist, prudential judgment is needed to determine how to do what is possible to restore justice – even if only partially or gradually – without ever abandoning a moral commitment to full protection for all human life from conception to natural death.

Relative importance

In making voting decisions, it is essential for Catholics to be guided by a well-formed conscience that recognizes that all issues do not carry the same moral weight and that the moral obligation to oppose policies promoting intrinsically evil acts has a special claim on our consciences and our actions. (USCCB)

Training is currently being held online!

As we prepare to resume in-person meetings, please remember that ALL adults who work with our children (including volunteers) must be VIRTUS certified. Contact Janet Ficca to register for the class.

THE

GROW AS A DISCIPLE

PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

In today's Gospel, Jesus has just silenced one group of religious leaders, the Sadducees (which seems to be quite a feat, if we look at their behavior in the Scripture!) and is now speaking to another group of religious leaders, the Pharisees. Jesus says that the greatest commandment in all the law is actually two: love the Lord your God with all your heart, mind, and soul; and love your neighbor as yourself. These two groups of religious leaders like to test him a lot, and while I might want to tell people like them to take a hike, Jesus never does. He always speaks the truth to them, in love, even if he is frustrated with their behavior.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Sometimes it's hard to see how three particular readings fit together on a Sunday, but I was struck by how well these do. The first reading, listing ways that we should not behave, can easily be summed up as: love your neighbor as yourself. We all are, or have been, some form of what the Lord mentions: an outsider (alien), vulnerable (widow/orphan), in financial need (loan recipient), or requiring some other assistance (needing a cloak). How do we want others to treat us in those times? Then we should behave the same. It seems like the Thessalonians understood this, for Paul praises them for being a model for other believers. They have a reputation for being truly loving; of turning to God from idols, and serving him. We can be discouraged by our human failings, as all of us living in lockdown/quarantine these recent months know. It may not take much to set us off. But this is where God's grace can help us to speak truth in love, and be a model for those around us.

ACTIONS Reflect on any obstacles to truly loving God with full heart, mind, and soul. Then think creatively about how to love God, and in turn, others.

- How I can love God with my whole heart? After spending time in prayer, write down how you see God in your family and friends. And then go tell them!
- How I can love God with my whole mind? Use "online time" to engage with a faith-related website such as Bishop Barron's wordonfire.org, or follow Pope Francis on Twitter.
- How I can love God with my soul? Pray the litany of humility.

Cub Scout Pack 628

- Are you in need of your annual popcorn fix?
- Are you in Kindergarten to Grade 5 and interested in becoming a Cub Scout?

If yes, contact the Cubmaster Matt Little at cubmaster.p628@gmail.com or (757) 695-8048. We meet on Monday evenings in Ashland House.

During the month of November, the Church especially remembers all those who have died. She commends the souls to God who gave witness to their faith and their belief in the future resurrection with Jesus Christ.

During the month of November, the BOOK OF THE NAMES OF THE DEAD will be on the long table in the Commons. All are invited to write the names of any family member or friend who has died on the pages of the book. During the Universal Prayer/Prayer of the Faithful, we will pray each week for all those whose names are inscribed in the book. We hope that seeing the names will help us to recall the lives of our faithful departed and so add their individual prayers to those who have lost a loved one. May God grant all the faithful departed Eternal Life in Heaven with the Trinity and the Communion of the Saints.

On Monday, November 2nd – All Souls Day – we will have Mass at 7 PM to especially remember all parish members who have died during the past year. If you would like to have your loved one remembered in a special way at this Mass, please contact Janet Ficca by Thursday, October 29th.

- Wondering how you will survive the weeks surrounding Thanksgiving and Christmas?
- Are you dreading these holidays, knowing that everything has changed and that happy memories from past years can't be recreated?

Our Divorce Care team will present Surviving the Holidays on Sunday, November 15th at 7 PM via Zoom.
