FAITHFUL
DISCIPLE

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

I'm struck by phrases in today's first and second readings: The prophet Ezekiel is told that those to whom he will be sent are "hard of face and obstinate of heart"; and Saint Paul aptly describes a "thorn in the flesh" as having been given to him. He even refers to this thorn as "an angel of Satan." These are descriptive images! So, I wondered, What do these images look like in practice? The Gospel gives us a clear example: those who grew up with Jesus refuse to see him as a prophet. At one time in my life, I might have said to myself: "Wow, I can't believe people of his own time would reject Jesus!" However, as I grow older, I'm conscious not only of more physical aches and pains, but the "thorn in the flesh" of patterns I'm not particularly proud of – cynicism, pessimism, even hard-heartedness and a closed mind. The "they" in today's readings hits closer to home and strikes me more as "we" than it used to. And yet, as Saint Paul reminds us, we can bring our imperfections to God and pray for grace to give us strength in our weakness, hearts open to God's love, and ears ready to hear the Gospel and be transformed by Jesus.

REFLECT For a more intentional look at whatever thorns might be in your side, and what weaknesses those contribute to, consider doing a retreat. Attend an in-person retreat at a local retreat house, or look into online options for a guided retreat at home.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

When Jesus returned to his hometown, he was not exactly greeted like a "hometown hero." His contemporaries could see him only as a carpenter, and not the Messiah: "So he was not able to perform any mighty deed there, apart from curing a few sick people by laying his hands on them. He was amazed at their lack of faith." We know that Jesus went on to perform the mightiest of deeds – dying and rising from the dead. And yet, even today, he would be "amazed at our lack of faith." Today's Gospel and the other readings encourage us to do a check-up of our spiritual health and pray for the grace to continue to grow in faith. We can also pray for others who may be questioning or have lost their faith, inviting them to consider coming to church with us or simply offering to pray with and for them.

We are in need of Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion (EMHC) for the bread.

The next training for ALL EMHC's (new & veteran) will be held on Wednesday, July 14th at 6:30 PM and on Saturday, July 17th at 9:30 AM – your choice. You do not have to attend both.

If you are already a EMHC and would like to continue to serve, please email Stephanie at mstephaniebrown@me.com or call or text her at (757-547-6578) with the following information: Name, phone number, email address, & preferred Mass(es) to serve.

FAREWELL MESSAGE FROM FR. MATTHIAS LUSEMBO

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ our King,

As the Book of Ecclesiastes says in Chapter 3, God sets a time for everything. There is a time for coming and a time for going. In John 2:5, our heavenly Mother Mary gives us her only command in the Bible: "Do whatever he (Jesus) tells you". Through Most Rev. Francis Xavier DiLorenzo, then Bishop of Richmond, Jesus appointed me Pastor of Christ the King Catholic Church (CTK), Norfolk. On June 30th, 2010, I reported to duty. After eleven years of service at CTK, Jesus, through His Excellency B. Knestout, has transferred me to be Pastor of Saint Francis of Assisi, Staunton, Virginia, beginning on July 05, 2021. That is the day when I intend to report at my new location.

I am going with very good memories of CTK. I remember the very impressive way I was welcomed when I arrived here. Numerous people worked on the rectory and its gardens to ensure that I was accommodated comfortably. Appliances that were lacking in the rectory were bought immediately. Many people cooperated with me to warrant a good celebration of the sacraments, especially the Holy Eucharist. Some generously assisted me to improve on my accent. Others struggled to understand me. Many families invited me to share dinners with them. Students wrote to me heaps of encouraging cards. Above all, parishioners cooperated to eliminate the big debt that was threatening the existence of CTK. Even during the time of the Pandemic, CTK parishioners continued to support generously the Church ministries with their time, talents and treasure. This is one of the reasons why I am going with a big smile, confident that CTK will continue to exist with vibrancy.

THANK YOU! THANK YOU! THANK YOU all for your generosity! May God reward you all abundantly! You have inspired me a lot, especially with your spirituality.

May all of you who are remaining at CTK welcome my successor, Father Joseph Wamala with the same or even more hospitality. You are always welcome to Saint Francis of Assisi Parish.

May God continue to bless us, especially with holiness, until we meet again wherever he wants us to meet! Bye-bye! Long live CTK!

Welcome, Fr. Joe!

Fr. Joseph Wamala was born in Uganda, which is a country located in Eastern Africa and crossed by the Equator. His home diocese is Kampala Archdiocese located in the central part of Uganda. He had his priestly studies in Uganda taking him through minor seminary and then the major seminary for both Philosophy and Theology. He was ordained to the Sacred Priesthood together with his brother (Fr. Fred) on August 7, 2004, by His Eminence Emmanuel Cardinal Wamala at the Sacred Heart Cathedral — Lubaga, Kampala. He started work in the Catholic Diocese of Richmond in 2009. He comes to us from St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church in Staunton,

Virginia, where he has been pastor for the last 10 years. He looks forward to new opportunities and new challenges as he begins his ministry at Christ the King Catholic Church. With all your prayers and cooperation, he promises to do his best as he leads Christ the King parish. He looks forward to meeting and getting to know you all as he begins his ministry in Norfolk.
