Have you ever done a “trust fall”? It’s a pretty crazy concept. With your eyes closed and arms folded over your chest, you fall straight backwards. Of course, there’s a very important element that hasn’t yet been mentioned: someone is standing behind you, ready to catch you.

The “trust fall” illustrates such an important truth: we are only willing to take a risk, to “fall,” when someone we trust is with us.

In our Gospel today, Peter commits to his own “trust fall,” casting in his nets after a whole night of fruitless fishing, all because he trusts the Lord and the Lord instructs him to. As a parish, we’re doing a “trust fall” right now, as we strive to respond to our Annual Diocesan Appeal. It can feel like a big risk to ask to be vulnerable and ask our community members to help meet our diocesan needs, but we do it because we trust—both in the Lord, but also in all the people who make up this parish community—including you.

Maybe contributing to the Annual Diocesan Appeal feels like a risk for you. Which is fine! The key, however, is to never forget that we’re not doing this alone. We’re taking part in the Annual Diocesan Appeal as part of a diocesan community we trust, and with the love and support of a Lord who never leaves us. When we change our perspective from “fear” to “trust,” how does our willingness to give change? Take some time today to ground yourself in trust of the Lord, and see how your heart responds.

Message from Our Principal

Greetings all,

What crazy weather we have had these past few weeks. Our students really enjoyed a snow day and a fun weekend full of winter activities. I hope everyone has stayed safe and warm!

CTK spent our Catholic Schools Week celebrating all things Catholic Schools! Our 8th-grade students helped plan our very creative dress-down days. We celebrated the 100th day of school on Thursday, February 3rd. Students and teachers wore shirts celebrating how far we have come in 100 days of in-person instruction. Our Pre-school students had a 100-day fashion show! It was a wonderful week for all!

Open Registration for the 2022-2023 school year is underway. If your family or anyone you may know would be interested in learning more about our school, please give us a call at 757-625-4951 or send an e-mail to our Enrollment Coordinator, Katy Rock, at krock@ctkparish.org. We have several different options for financial aid available for those in need.

As we approach the feast of St. Blaise, I continue to pray for you and your families' continued health and wellness.

Be safe. Be well.
Kim V. Callahan,
Principal
