GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Parenthood can be humbling. When our children are young, we celebrate even the tiniest accomplishments: “You put on your socks!” or “Wow, good job putting your dish in the dishwasher!” And rightly so. Then come the teen years, and some of us can err on the side of criticism. “Why did you put off that project until the last minute?” “Turn off the electronics by 10 p.m. or else ...” “What, another energy drink?” (We say, looking up from our own phone with a cup of tea in hand ...) The same can be said of our spiritual lives. We want our children to pray and participate in the sacraments, but we may rush through Grace before meals, skip opportunities for confession, or treat holy Mass as an afterthought. Today’s Gospel reminds us why our admonitions won’t work if we don’t walk our talk: The blind can’t lead the blind. None of us is perfect, and neither are our children or the other people in our lives. But as our second reading reminds us, Jesus has won for us victory over sin. When we ask Jesus to help us remove the “wooden beam” from our own eyes, we can see his will for us more clearly and lift up those around us.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

We don’t have to be perfect to encourage one another in our faith. Like the “good tree” Jesus describes in the parable and the tree that bears “good fruit” in Sirach, however, we need to nourish our faith before we can share it with others. It can start with something as simple as adding prayer to our morning routine. We can bring our flaws, our doubts, our bad habits to Jesus and ask him to free us from whatever might be holding us back. As we accompany others, whether it is those with whom we live, work, or worship, we can turn to Jesus to help us be a force for good. We will stumble. But as St. Paul reminds us, “Be firm, steadfast, always fully devoted to the work of the Lord, knowing that in the Lord your labor is not in vain.”

PRAY Have you prayed The Examen? This Ignatian practice, often at the end of the day, encourages reflection — on God’s presence in our day and the areas where we may have fallen short. We can ask the Lord for forgiveness and the grace to do better tomorrow.

Message from Our Principal

Greetings parents and parishioners,

I can't believe that March is already here! This year has flown by! Hopefully, this month will bring us more signs of spring as we prepare and enter the journey of the Lenten season.

We will focus on the season of Lent during our Religion classes, special events, and liturgies. During Lent, we prepare for the most important holiday, Easter. Lent is a time of prayer, restraint, and questioning what is essential in our lives. We will encourage our students to think about how they want to live Lent. This may include giving up something they like to help them appreciate their blessings, or it would consist of extra acts of kindness and compassion during this season.

Ash Wednesday marks a special day for our school! We are welcoming back parents and parishioners to participate in our school Mass on this date. I know many parents have missed seeing their children serve as lectors, singers, and servers. We have reserved seating for you to the left of the Choir.

Congratulations to our February Peacemakers who their teachers selected for demonstrating the virtue of Honesty. March's virtue is kindness.

The Run to Fund is an annual race where the students get to let loose and run the schools' calls without getting detention! We are planning a fun indoor/ outdoor course that will undoubtedly generate much excitement for all. As the primary fundraising event for CTK, the money raised will go towards enhancing your child's educational experience at our school. This year's goal is $30,000! Check out our website at www.bit.ly.com/ctkrun to donate to this great cause!

As always, thank you for your continued support. Please feel free to reach out any time if you have questions or concerns.

We pray that you continue to stay safe and stay well.

Be safe, Be well,

Kim V. Callahan, Principal
