GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

In today's Gospel from Luke, Jesus is transfigured before the disciples: They see a glorious vision of him wearing dazzling white, with a "face changed in appearance," and conversing with Moses and Elijah about the "exodus that he was going to accomplish in Jerusalem." This is in marked contrast to what Luke had recounted just prior to these verses: Jesus' prediction of his suffering and death, and the assertion that his disciples must take up their crosses daily in order to follow him. So it is no surprise that Peter, likely somewhat stunned after being a part of both moments, "did not know what he was saying." Then a cloud passes over and, while they are frightened, they hear God's voice affirm what they have just seen: "This my chosen Son; listen to him." We all experience these extremes - days where all seems lost; others where we feel as though we've had glimpses of heaven. Today's Gospel encourages us to look to Jesus, who has experienced the frailty of humanity and the glory of divinity. Through his suffering, death, and resurrection, we are redeemed, and ultimately - as the disciples glimpsed today - "he will change our lowly body to conform with his glorified body."

PRAY Lent is a good time to try a new form of prayer. Do you often pray silently? Try the rosary or spoken prayer. Do you normally pray out loud? Try centering prayer or another form of quiet or silent prayer, such as Lectio Divina.

CTK School News

Greetings parents and parishioners,

Happy Lent! Lent is a journey that moves us all closer toward the cross. Ash Wednesday marked an inspiring day for the CTK community. After two years of virtual Mass, then alternating weekly Masses for our students, we are finally back together with all students, family, and visitors! It was a beautiful and joyous time coming together to celebrate the beginning of the Lenten season!

As our students settle into Lent, our 5th graders are hosting a clothing drive for local homeless women and children in the Hampton Roads area. There is a donation box inside the school's lobby if anyone is interested in donating.

CTK would like to give a huge congratulations to our very own 8th grader, Derrick! On Saturday, February 26, Derrick won the 14-year-old free throw competition hosted by the Knights of Columbus. Derrick now moves on to the regional tournament! Congratulations Derrick!

Our Cougars are doing a fantastic job raising money for our annual Run to FunD! There is still time to register and donate. All donations go directly to the CTK school! If you or anyone would like to donate, you can online at <http://bt.ly/ctkrun> or in person at the school. So far, our students have raised just under $10,000! We hope you can come out and cheer on our students on Friday, March 18!

Stay tuned next week for pictures of our March Peacemakers and Run to Fund runners! March's Peacemaker virtue is Kindness. Your support of our school means so much to our faculty, staff, and students. If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to reach out.

Be safe, Be well,
Kim V. Callahan, Principal

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Life can bring unexpected joys and disappointments. One day we celebrate a birth; another we grieve the loss of a loved one. We fall in love; we experience broken relationships. Many of us may find ourselves in flux much of the time: Will this pandemic ever end? Will the cancer recur? What's next now that the kids are grown? Today's readings give me great hope in the knowledge that God is with us through all the twists and turns and ups and downs of our lives. Just as God fulfilled his promises to Abraham, God has given us a Savior in Jesus Christ and promises that we will someday share in his glory. To that end, we can strive to ensure that no darkness in our world prevents us from becoming a source of light to others. Jesus and the saints walk before us. We pray, then, for the grace to listen to God's chosen Son, and to "stand firm in the Lord."

A Very Special Crossing Guard!

The Church Wants to Hear from You – Synod on Synodality

Have you ever wondered why and how certain changes were made in the Church? Have you ever thought of changes you would like to happen? Pope Francis wants your thoughts and opinions and by his authority, we have been given 11 questions to consider and answer. By definition, a synod is a group of church members that meets to discuss and resolve questions. Traditionally, this has been a group of Bishops. Pope Francis has stated that a synodal Church is a Church that listens. With that in mind, we have all been called to participate in a Synod on Synodality.

Fr. Joe will be leading a listening session after every Mass on the weekend of March 12th & 13th and again on March 19th & 20th using the questions below. Please attend whichever session is most convenient for you. May we journey together through this process.

These are the questions we would like you to consider and to share your thoughts and concerns. If you prefer to not speak during the sessions, please feel free to write your answers down and give them to Fr. Joe, email to the office, or drop them in the offertory basket or at the church office.

- 1. How would you characterize your Church community-the people who are journeying together? What persons or groups are left on the margins? How is your parish inviting those on the margins into relationship? (Consider different demographics, levels of involvement and levels of satisfaction. Also consider methods of outreach and evangelization and the effectiveness of those methods.)
- 2. Who does our Church currently listen to? Who is not being listened to? Which groups are less likely to be listened to? Who is being left out of the conversation? (Consider age, social status, race/ethnicity, gender, etc. in your discussion.)
- 3. Do our liturgies promote the active participation of all the faithful in the liturgy and encourage them to live lives of faith? Does the homily draw from the Word of God and inspire the faithful? (Who are the people attending and actively participating in Mass? Is the music calling the faithful to deeper prayer in the Mass?)
- 4. Under what circumstances and in what ways are Catholics communicating in the world today? How does the prevalence of digital and social media affect communication? (Consider communication at home, at work or online, the ability to have civil conversations while in disagreement, the interaction between clergy and laity, and communication between parish and parishioners.)
- 5. How is the Church dialoguing, collaborating, and resolving conflicts among its own members in the Church? (Consider this question on different levels: within your parish, locally, within your deanery, between dioceses, between different ecclesial movements, or globally.)

- 6. How is the Church dialoguing, collaborating, and resolving conflicts with members of other Christian denominations, people of other non-Christian religious traditions, and people with no religious affiliation? What have been the fruits of doing so, and what have been the difficulties? (Do you see your community working together with other churches in your area? Is it a member of an ecumenical association or ministry? Are there interfaith service or charitable works being accomplished? Is your community meaningfully interacting with the those that identify as having no connection with religion?)

- 7. What areas and issues in the wider society is the Church focused on? Are there areas or issues we need to pay more attention to? (Consider politics, economics, culture, outreach, etc.)

- 8. How is the parish equipping and empowering people to go out and be on mission for Jesus Christ in their regular lives? What obstacles do the faithful face in living and professing their faith publicly? What opportunities is the parish providing to help the faithful face those obstacles? What is still needed? (Do the faithful have opportunities to learn how to pray, learn how to discern, and learn how to live as a Christian witness?)

- 9. How are lay leaders given responsibility and to what extent do they have the authority to make decisions? (How are consultative groups used? Do lay leaders have the ability to make smaller decisions as well as either making or being part of the discussion for big picture, long-term decisions?)

- 10. What opportunities does your parish or community offer to raise people up into leadership positions? How are those in leadership roles formed to make them more capable of journeying together? How do you offer opportunities for those in leadership to listen and engage in dialogue with those they are journeying with? (Consider formation and leadership opportunities as well as town halls and open forums.)

- 11. How are decisions made for the parish or community? (Is there a time of discernment and collaboration and who has authority to make the decisions? Who is engaged in the process? How are those not in leadership positions able to participate?)
