CTK School News

Greetings Parents and Parishioners,

Spring has sprung! March indeed came in like a lion and went out like a lamb. Spring is a time of renewal, rebirth, and regrowth for all things. The weather has finally turned to something much more bearable!

The Lenten journey continues for our students this week. The middle school participated in Stations of the Cross last week. During these times, we want to remember how much Jesus loved us. He gave up his life so we could be free from sin and live together in his love, now and forever in heaven.

Congratulations to this month's Peacemaker for the virtue of kindness. Our students show their hearts in a variety of ways. By sharing a pencil, our new students feel welcomed and loved. Keep up this great virtue! Next month's virtue is patience.

Our 7th-grade class spent last Wednesday at Catholic High School participating in their Mass and a Meal Program. This program allows prospective students to see CHS and learn about what it offers. The students enjoyed the best of SAGE Dining Services, pizza, and ice cream~ We thank CHS for their hospitality!

We had a great St. Patrick's Day this year! Our Junior Kindergarteners made a Leprechaun trip for their STEM lesson. Although many attempts were made, that tricky leprechaun still managed to get away but not without doing a little naughty trickery first!

We had a fantastic Run to Fund! The weather was gorgeous for a full day of outside running and activities for all of our students! Stay tuned next week for our final Run to Fund donation totals! Thank you to all volunteers, donors, and runners who make our day of fun such a success!

There are limited spaces available for the 2022- 2023 school year. We have financial aid available for those in need. Please reach out to our Enrollment Coordinator, Katy Rock, for more information on the school and setting up a tour.

We are in the home stretch for Spring Break and the rest of this school year. I pray that God continues to keep us safe and healthy.

Be safe, Be well,
Kim V. Callahan, Principal

FAITHFUL

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Today we celebrate Laetare (which means “rejoice”) Sunday. As we mark the midpoint of Lent, we allow ourselves to look ahead with joyful anticipation of Jesus’ resurrection, even as we continue our practices of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. Amidst these penitential practices of Lent, this day offers a reminder that we have reason for hope. The parable of the prodigal son shows us what hope looks like. When the father caught sight of his wayward son, he did not see the young man who made bad choices, wasted his inheritance, and disobeyed him. He looked at him with eyes of unconditional love, rejoicing that “he was lost and has been found.” That’s how Jesus viewed the sinners and tax collectors, and how the Father views us, his wayward sons and daughters, when we return to him in contrition and love. So as we continue our Lenten practices, let’s take time to give thanks for the goodness and mercy of God today, knowing that the Lord awaits us with open arms when we acknowledge our sinfulness and rely upon him for all that is good.

ACT On Laetare Sunday, priests may wear rose-colored vestments as a symbol of joy. Carry this sense of joy into your day by placing roses at the table, bringing flowers to a friend, or calling someone with whom you’ve fallen out of touch.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Is it me, or are some of the parables hard to figure out? The parable of the prodigal son is one we’ve heard over and over again, and resonates across ages and generations. Some of us may relate to the prodigal son and others to the dutiful brother. The parents and grandparents among us may have been in the father’s shoes at some point. What better time than Lent to reflect on what the story means to us at this point in our lives: Are we awaiting the return of a disaffected loved one? Are we in need of repenting for our own actions? The answer will be different for each of us, but we can rejoice in the fact that we are loved unconditionally by God wherever we are on our Lenten and life journeys. Our challenge is to open our hearts to that love; as we do so, we can’t help but be transformed and in turn share that love with others through friendship, service, and generosity. As St. Paul writes, “Whoever is in Christ is a new creation: The old things have passed away.”
