THE FAITHFUL
DISCIPLE

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

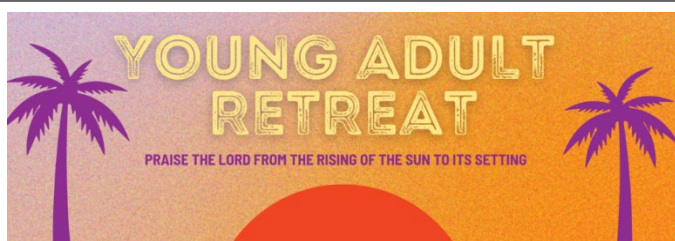

Is it me, or does every popular waiting-room magazine feature an article on “how to declutter” in six easy steps? I always read those first, then add them to the unsightly pile of magazines on the end table. The constant, if futile, quest to declutter comes from a deeper place than a desire for a clean house. It feels so liberating to let go of those things that we no longer need. Today’s readings challenge us to look not just outward, but inward, at what distracts us from what really matters. Paul exhorts us to “seek what is above,” letting go of earthly concerns or habits that get in the way of our relationship with God. By putting on a “new self” through prayer, the sacrament of reconciliation and receiving Jesus in the Eucharist, we will become “rich in what matters to God.”

ACTION Take a look around your house and donate items in good condition to a charity in your community. And then ask the organization if they need any help with a summer yard cleanup or simple tasks around the facility – these are easy ways to involve the whole family in serving others.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Personal-finance writers often divide people into two camps: Savers or spenders. I’m definitely a saver! I dutifully contribute to my 401K, stash unexpected windfalls into my savings account, and carefully budget. On the rare occasions when I go out to dinner, I struggle with choosing what to order: It’s a high-stakes decision! Fiscal responsibility is a good thing, but today’s parable challenges me to be just as diligent about investing in my relationship with God, my family, and the people I encounter. We are blessed with so many opportunities to “seek what is above”: It may mean spending the first 30 minutes of the day in prayer, reading books or articles that help us grow spiritually, or joining a parish Bible study. Or even taking a friend to dinner and picking up the tab! In doing so, we are investing in this life – and the next.

Give Yourself a Weekend Away to Refocus on the Lord

We all need to take time to rest, retreat from the world, and recharge. This October 21-23, young adults from across the Diocese of Richmond have an opportunity for a spiritual weekend retreat on the Outer Banks in North Carolina. Our keynote speaker is Paul George, and a priest will be available throughout the weekend for Mass, Reconciliation, and Eucharistic Adoration. There will also be ample opportunities for prayer, fellowship, and downtime. Join us as we praise the Lord “from the rising of the sun to its setting” and lean into the theme of Sunrise/Sunset!

Save $25 if you register by July 31st!

Greeting parishioners and families,

We hope everyone is having a great summer and is trying to stay cool during these impossibly hot days! Campers are having a great time working on projects and crafts. They are spending time journaling about their fun summer adventures both during camp and at home with family and friends.

Three members of our administrative team spent a few days in Washington DC learning about how CTK can better serve our military-connected children and their families. MCEC, or The Military Child Education Coalition, supports all military-connected children by educating, advocating, and collaborating to resolve educational challenges associated with military life. Please check out their website at www.militarychild.org for more information on this great cause.

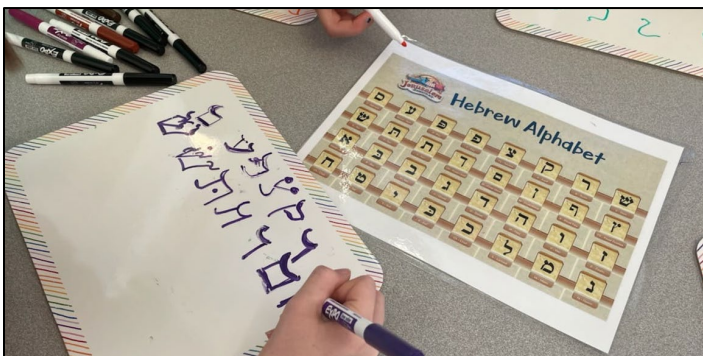

Do you think your student as the summer slump? There are lots of ways to prevent it. Here are 5:

1. Read, Read, Read! Reading helps to encourage open conversations between children and adults.
2. Math games provide a structure and process for children to engage in problem-solving to reach a particular goal and objective.
3. Word games are great because they help children focus on sounds and letters and develop skills needed for reading, writing, and spelling.
4. Volunteer! Spending focused time helping others helps build compassion in a way that's hard to replicate. Children will learn to relate to the people they serve. Beyond building empathy, volunteering helps connect you to others in your community.
5. Take a trip! Traveling with children can expand a child's world, making them more empathetic toward cultural differences and helping them adapt to changing situations.

We are very excited to hear about what our students did while on vacation! We look forward to seeing everyone soon! Stay safe and cool this summer and remember to keep reading!
