GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

When will wisdom kick in? Even so many years later, I still struggle with some of the same questions that kept me up at night when I was 21. Fortunately, God is patient with late bloomers. The Book of Wisdom reassures us that, first, God loves us, no matter where we are on the continuum of “having it all together.” Second, the Lord won’t judge us on our worst days, but wants us to grow in wisdom and holiness. The Wisdom writer knows it’s not an overnight process; it is often marked by one step forward, two steps back: “You rebuke offenders little by little, warn them and remind them of the sins they are committing, that they may abandon their wickedness and believe in you, O Lord!” Like Zacchaeus in today’s Gospel, if we seek out Jesus and ask for his help, he will show us the way. Thanks be to a God who comes “to seek and to save what was lost.”

PRAY When a friend shares a struggle or challenge, don’t be shy about offering your prayers. Make a list of people to pray for and set it by your bedside so you don’t forget.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

At Mass recently, the priest encouraged parishioners to turn to the person next to them and ask them for whom they would like us to pray. I’ve been at Masses where we introduce ourselves, but this “Hi, how are you, please pray for X” was new to me. As Mass continued, I prayed for Matt, the son of the woman in front of me. She prayed for my friend Jim, whose sore knee had sidelined him during his walk along the Camino de Santiago. How encouraging it must have been for the early Christians to know that St. Paul held them in prayer, “that our God may make you worthy of his calling and powerfully bring to fulfillment every good purpose and every effort of faith.” Just as Jesus seeks us out, we, in turn, can accompany others who may be lost or hurting or who just happen to be in the next pew. Through our prayers, we can build up one another, our parish, and the wider Church.

St. Columba Ecumenical Ministries is a nonprofit organization dedicated to helping those who are homeless and low-income.

During the Month of November, we will be collecting:

Food for Holiday Baskets

Boxed: stuffing, instant potatoes, Jiffy corn muffin mix, dessert mix

Canned: corn, green beans, sweet potatoes, cranberry sauce, fruit and hams

Frozen 10-12 lb. turkeys and Fresh or Frozen hens

Please contact office before donation for proper storage.*

For more information, please contact Alicia at 757-627-6748 or visit their website: www.stcolumbaministries.com

During the month of November, the Church especially remembers all those who have died. She commends the souls to God who gave witness to their faith and their belief in the future resurrection with Jesus Christ.

During the month of November, the BOOK OF THE NAMES OF THE DEAD will be on the long table in the Commons. All are invited to write the names of any family member or friend who has died on the pages of the book.

During the Universal Prayer/Prayer of the Faithful, we will pray each week for all those whose names are inscribed in the book. We hope that seeing the names will help us to recall the lives of our faithful departed and so add their individual prayers to those who have lost a loved one. May God grant all the faithful departed Eternal Life in Heaven with the Trinity and the Communion of the Saints.

On Wednesday, November 2nd – All Souls Day – we especially remember all parish members who have died during the past year: Roger Barnes, Rita Buck, Patricia Cupp, Bill Elings, Nancy Inman, Samuel Johnson, and Stephen Wheeler

Greetings, parishioners, families, and friends!

Happy chilly October, everyone! Things are finally cooling off, and we are getting ready for all the fun events of the upcoming season!

Thank you to all families attending the Catholic High School Homecoming Game! Students, parents, and faculty did a great job representing CTK! We also want to thank Fr. Glass of Holy Trinity for coming to celebrate Holy Mass without students this past week.

Fall is a beautiful time of year! A time to enjoy the change of seasons, enjoy the sun's warmth, but want a little chill in the air! Fall is a time to enjoy the colorful leaves or get our homes, families, and ourselves ready for the end of the year. In these festive times, let us not forget to continue to pray for one another, our troops, our first responders, and of course, the less fortunate than us.

Be sure to check out the pictures of Homecoming! We thank you, as always, for your continued support and partnership. We are continually humbled to be part of an incredible community that continues to band together to support our students.
