THE FAITHFUL
DISCIPLE

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Don't get me wrong. I love vacations and weekends away. But the night and day before? It's always a whirlwind of laundry, packing, and shopping for groceries and essential car snacks. I knew we were going away. I could have gotten my act together earlier. Next trip, I tell myself. Then the cycle repeats itself. Advent can be that way. This year's going to be the year! No rushing around, no crazy last-minute shopping, no stress: I'm going to study the daily readings, read that Advent devotional, settle into the season of waiting. Today's readings speak not only to procrastinators like me but also to the planners: Wherever we are on that continuum, Advent gives us an opportunity to ready our souls for Jesus' coming. It's less about what we do when than about preparing our hearts. Through prayer, study and the liturgies of this season, we can ask God to help us clean house within and prepare for Jesus' coming.

ACTION Even with the best of intentions, the holiday season can become busy. As you go about errands or prepare your home, make an effort to listen to Advent hymns or reflections.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Today is not only the first Sunday of Advent, but the first day of the liturgical year. Today's readings encourage us to prepare for Christ's coming. I love St. Paul's imagery: "Let us then throw off the works of darkness and put on the armor of light. Let us ... put on the Lord Jesus Christ." Just as we make resolutions for the new calendar year, Advent affords us an opportunity to start anew. However, the gift of our faith reminds us that we are not alone in this! We can seek the help of the Holy Spirit through prayer and turn to the accountability partners who sit in the pews next to us at Sunday Mass. We, in turn, can be a light to others through our words, attitudes, and actions. As we light our houses and light our Christmas trees this year, we can remember to put on the armor of light ourselves as we begin this holy season.

Greetings, parishioners, families, and friends,

We hope you will all attend our annual Christmas Pageants and luncheon. Students in grades 3-8 will have their pageant on Wednesday, December 14, at 6:00 p.m. On Thursday, our preschool – 2nd grade will have their holiday pageant, and CTK will host a luncheon immediately following. We look forward to bringing back this Christmas tradition! We also cannot wait for our school mass to be held on Saturday, December 10, at 5:30 P.M. CTK will have a family and friends dinner night following Mass at Azalea Inn at 7:00 P.M. We hope you can join us.

We are well into our 2nd quarter of school. In the blink of an eye, it will be time for Christmas break, and our first school semester will be finished. If you have any questions or concerns about your child's academic progress, please do not hesitate to contact our teachers. Remember, you can also keep up with your child's grades by logging into your FACTS Family Portal.

Families, thank you for partnering with us to educate your children. If you have any questions or concerns, don't hesitate to contact the school office or email me directly at kcallahan@ctkparish.org.

Have a wonderful week!

Christ the King Catholic School

During the month of November, the Church especially remembers all those who have died. She commends the souls to God who gave witness to their faith and their belief in the future resurrection with Jesus Christ.

During the month of November, the BOOK OF THE NAMES OF THE DEAD will be on the long table in the Commons. All are invited to write the names of any family member or friend who has died on the pages of the book.

During the Universal Prayer/Prayer of the Faithful, we will pray each week for all those whose names are inscribed in the book. We hope that seeing the names will help us to recall the lives of our faithful departed and so add their individual prayers to those who have lost a loved one. May God grant all the faithful departed Eternal Life in Heaven with the Trinity and the Communion of the Saints.

On Wednesday, November 2nd – All Souls Day – we especially remember all parish members who have died during the past year: Roger Barnes, Rita Buck, Patricia Cupp, Bill Elings, Nancy Inman, Legaya Jankowski, Samuel Johnson, Juanita Pryor and Stephen Wheeler
