Harmony. It can seem so elusive in these times when our newsfeeds bombard us with reminders of what's wrong with our world: war, political conflicts, hunger, injustice, violence. We may also experience discord in our homes or within our hearts. Perhaps that is why the beautiful imagery in Isaiah's prophecy, where Isaiah envisions a world transformed by the coming of the Messiah, strikes a chord as we prepare for Christ's coming: We picture the wolf lying beside the lamb, and the calf with the lion. All will be right with the world. As we reflect on the areas in our lives that lack harmony, we are reminded to focus on Jesus and the Father, the source of all good. Through prayer and reflection on our Advent readings, we can "prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths."

PRAY St. Paul's words above give us pretty clear instruction for how to live out our faith by welcoming others as Christ has welcomed us. Reflect on these words during daily Advent reflection this week: When have we welcomed others in our lives - and truly loved them? How can we do that for someone in the coming days?

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

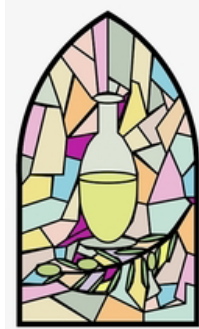

I have a "smart" alarm clock. To shut it off, I just have to say, "Alexa, turn off my alarm." Easy, right? Well, too easy, it turns out, because lately I've slept right through the one-sided conversation. But it's hard to miss John's wake-up call: "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand!" Perhaps, though, we've become complacent; we've heard it so often that we skip right past it. That can happen during Advent, this season of preparation and, yes, repentance. I love our family traditions - candy every day, in the morning!; our well-worn Nativity set; lighting the Advent candles; Christmas concerts and gatherings. None of those are bad, of course, but in the blur of the season we must be challenged by John the Baptist's words to prepare not only our homes but our hearts for Christ's coming. During this season, we can examine our lives to separate the wheat from the chaff, focusing on those things that bring us closer to the Lord and one another. As St. Paul encourages the Romans, "Welcome one another, then, as Christ welcomed you, for the glory of God."

Kids in Grades 3-8 who love to sing for the Lord are invited to join our Children's Choir to sing on Christmas Eve at 5 PM.

Rehearsals are at 4 PM on Saturdays.

Please email me at music@christthekingnorfolk.org if interested as soon as possible. Include your children's names, ages, and other musical experiences, such as chorus or music lessons. Thank you! B. J. Atkinson

Do Catholics still receive "last rites"?

"Last rites" have not been eliminated, however, "last rites" encompass several sacraments, including penance (confession of sins), viaticum (holy Communion given as food for the journey to eternal life) and the anointing of the sick. Ideally, those sacraments should be administered when the recipient is aware and able to benefit most.

The anointing of the sick is administered to bring spiritual and even physical strength during an illness, especially near the time of death, but it can be received more than once. It is most likely one of the last sacraments one will receive. A sacrament is an outward sign established by Jesus Christ to confer inward grace. In more basic terms, it is a rite that is performed to convey God's grace to the recipient, through the power of the Holy Spirit.

If you or a loved one is in need of physical healing, please do not wait. Contact the office and we will help you schedule a visit from a lay minister, deacon or priest.

Greetings, parishioners, families, and friends,

As the Christmas season fills our hearts and senses this year, we remember the miracle we are about to celebrate, which changed the world forever. The past year and a half have changed how we gather and celebrate this miracle. This year we came together for Advent prayer and our traditional Lessons and Carols celebration. Still, our hesitancy and caution for everyone's health and safety remain concerns for all of us.

We are still in awe of the small Child who came to re-create the world with the hope, peace, love, and joy of His coming, and we are in constant prayer that the reasons for which He came will become more evident in our lives. This small Child grew into a man who modeled how we must live to make the world a better place—feeding the hungry, healing the sick, consoling the lonely, giving shelter to the homeless, welcoming the outcast, and trusting one another to do what is right. We know, intellectually, the difference that Jesus' life made in the world. Most importantly, may we feel all that Christmas brings to our lives and those around us this year. May we celebrate its true meaning—that God loved us so much that He came to us in the person of Jesus!

When we recalled the story of Bethlehem's events all those years ago, we remember the light and song of the angels as they announced the Good News of Jesus' birth to the shepherds on the hillside. "Peace on earth and goodwill toward all." We remember the anticipation of the shepherds as they joyfully found this Child, and we recognize the magi as they carefully laid their well-chosen gifts before the Child Jesus. Each year the story is told, and the telling of the story changes us and the world around us! May we be the light and the song this Christmas as we seek to make the lives of those around us brighter with our presence, whether in person or remotely!

May the story we tell be the hope, peace, joy, and love of that first Christmas night. May we remember Jesus' humble birth in a stable, and in recognizing, may we offer the gifts that we have received as gifts to one another!

We hope you can join us for our Christmas pageants and Holiday luncheon this year! The dates and times are listed below! Families, thank you for partnering with us to educate your children. If you have any questions or concerns, don't hesitate to contact the school office, or email me directly at kcallahan@ctkparish.org.

Have a wonderful week!
