Wondering what OCIA is?

OCIA stands for the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults. It was recently changed from RCIA because the rites are just part of the program. Both refer to the process by which an adult becomes Catholic. Older non-baptized children are included in this process which takes a minimum of 1 year.

Here at CTK, we call our program “What We Believe” and the classes are open to anyone (even if you are already Catholic) who wants to learn more about the beliefs and practices of the Catholic Church. There is no start or end date! Contact Janet Ficca for more details or just show up! All are welcome to join us!

FAITHFUL
DISCIPLE

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Since the Fall, the world has been riddled with strife and divisiveness. From the disobedience in the Garden, to Cain and Abel, to conflicts and wars throughout the centuries, it's clear that we humans are prone to picking sides and fighting over them. We hear about this even within the early Church from St. Paul in today's second reading. There were rivalries, and Christians were saying things such as, "I belong to Paul" or "I belong to Cephas." But Paul wisely asks: "Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized in the name of Paul?" Clearly not. There is only one source of Truth – Jesus Christ – and Paul never hesitated to refuse credit for himself, and to instead glorify the Lord in his word and deed. This is the model set for us – to refuse to set ourselves or God-made-in-our-own-image over and against the Triune God who created us. Christ came to unite us with himself and to one another, in reconciliation with the Father. His words are now our words: Repent and believe in the Gospel. Pray for the grace to come together as the body of Christ so that we can be his hands and feet in the world and carry out the work he began.

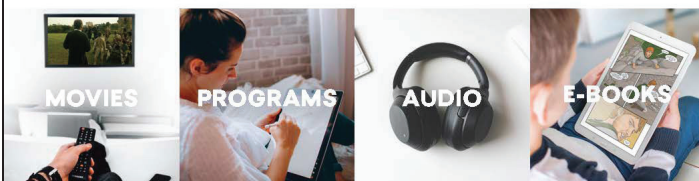

PRAY The Lord has commissioned us to take the Gospel to the ends of the earth. Where we cannot go physically or in person, we can go in prayer. Bring before the Lord all who yet need to hear his voice and repent and believe. Pray for those who are persecuted for their belief in Jesus Christ.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

In Jesus Christ the kingdom of God enters into human history, fulfilling God's promise of salvation for his people. Christ inaugurated the kingdom on earth, and as members of his Church we are responsible for continuing to build it – here and now. As Christ called his first disciples and made them "fishers of men," so he calls us, that we might go forth "proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom, and curing every disease and illness among the people."

Greetings, Parishioners, families, and friends,

Our students are back in the swing of things over here at CTK. Students have completed their mid-year MAPS testing and are already in their third quarter of school. That's hard to believe!

Catholic Schools Week is right around the corner, and we look forward to all the activities our school, Student Council, and P.T.O. have planned for the students! Take a look at the schedule attached below.

As a reminder, the weather around Hampton Roads is always unpredictable, so please send your child to school with a jacket. Our students go outside in the morning and the afternoon, and we want them to be prepared for any weather situation.

We also want to remind families that if your child feels under the weather, please keep them home. We are trying to keep everyone healthy, from teachers to staff and faculty, especially our students.

I appreciate your support in educating your children. Please don't hesitate to contact me with questions at the school office or via email at kcallahan@ctkparish.org.

Have a wonderful week!
