 New members are always welcome!

God asks a lot of his followers in today's Gospel.
 On top of the 613 commandments in Torah, Jesus sets an even higher bar in Matthew 5.

Jesus tasked our parish with a mission to evangelize. With your prayers, generosity, and advocacy, we can help others find the hope we discovered: that while the bar is high, Christ is higher.

Support our Annual Diocesan Appeal so we can support our community and reach His bar together!

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Just the other day some of my friends agreed on a new way to approach the new year: Select one word, a kind of mantra for 2023. Ironically, even though I am indecisive to a fault, I had no trouble deciding on mine: "Choose." I often get stuck, whether it's deciding which online clothing purchases to return, what to order on the menu ... and don't get me started on major life decisions. Today's reading from Sirach reminds us of the choice that matters most: If we choose to keep the commandments, they will save us. "Before man are life and death, good and evil, whichever he chooses shall be given him." We are well into 2023, but it bears reminding that each day we have an opportunity to choose anew: To follow God's law, fulfilled in the words and example of Jesus. He will show us the way. "If you trust in God, you too shall live."

PRAY Pray today's psalm (119): "Blessed are they who follow the law of the Lord!" How might you specifically follow the law of the Lord just a little bit better, or above and beyond, today? Each day?

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

We've probably all heard the term "quiet quitting" by now. It's a workplace phenomenon where employees do the bare minimum rather than going above and beyond. I thought of that phrase when reading Matthew's Gospel today. How many of us Christians have "quietly quit," doing the minimum required - going to Mass on Sunday, being faithful to our spouse, not resorting to violence when we get angry with someone. Jesus challenges us to go above and beyond the Ten Commandments. You shall not kill, but you should not stay angry either. You shall not commit adultery, but you shall also love your spouse with your whole heart. Today's readings challenge us to rediscover God's law and challenge ourselves to go "above and beyond" in our daily lives.

Greetings Parishioners, Parents, Friends,

When I consider everything the students and teachers have accomplished thus far, I am incredibly proud of them. However, when I consider everything that needs to be done, my head spins with exhaustion.

Checking in with your child's teacher halfway through the academic year is also great. In addition to "How is my child doing?", you should also consider:

- "What are they best at?"
- "How can I help them at home the most effectively?"
- "How are their friendships going?"
- and any other pressing queries you may have to help your child and their teacher.

Families will have this opportunity on Friday, February 17.

We all want each student to succeed, develop, and achieve because we are all together. We can accomplish this together with certainty. How frequently parents visit their children's classrooms, speak with their teachers, and otherwise get involved is one of THE most important factors in a student's success. You strongly convey to your students that you value them and their education.

As always, feel free to contact me with any questions, complaints, or compliments. Enjoy your wonderful week!

Pax Ominibus,

Kim Versprille Callahan, Ed.S.

Principal, Christ the King Catholic School
