Please join our Annual Diocesan Appeal so that we may fulfill Jesus’ command in today’s Gospel to “do the works of God” (John 9:4). There is no higher work than liturgy. The word Liturgy means “work for the people.” God’s work works for us, too! Help our Appeal, so we can keep doing them.
God bless you for it.

Please help us reach our goal of $15,470 by donating today or making a pledge. Scan the QR code or go to

March 19, 2023 | Fourth Sunday of Lent

1 Sm 16:1b, 6-7, 10-13a | Eph 5:8-14 | Jn 9:1-41

Written by
THE FAITHFUL

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Five days, five minutes of sunshine: That's how the city where I live greeted 2023. As the month wore on, the gloom seemed unrelenting with only momentary breaks in the clouds. When the sun did return, people posted photos on social media with a combination of joy and relief. That experience hints at the effect Jesus had on St. Paul and the early Christians. As he writes, "You were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord." Today, just as then, Jesus brings light and healing to the darkness within us and within our world. Unlike the elusive sun, we can see the light of Jesus every day – in the people we love, the kindness of strangers, moments of prayer, unexpected joys. In turn, St. Paul encourages us to "live as children of light" by being the face of Jesus to others.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Even in the midst of Lent as a penitential season, the Sunday readings offer us much hope. Consider today's familiar story of Jesus healing the blind man. He doesn't just tell the man to open his eyes. Instead, Jesus smears clay on the man's eyes and has him wash in the Pool of Siloam; only then does the blind man see. He was transformed through Christ. Through our baptism we, too, have been transformed and "enlightened," becoming sons and daughters of light (CCC 1216). As we continue to observe Lent, perhaps we're working on areas in our life where we have been spiritually blind – or at least not seeing 20/20. Through our baptism and the sacraments, we can be healed and transformed by Jesus, the "light of the world." In turn we can share that light with others, as we continue to grow in the virtues of "goodness and righteousness and truth" of which St. Paul speaks.

PRAY Psalm 23 is a favorite of many and for good reason. Read or listen to it this week as encouragement on your Lenten journey:
The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. In verdant pastures he gives me repose; beside restful waters he leads me; he refreshes my soul.

Greetings Parishioners, Parents, Friends,

As we are already in the middle of March, I'd like to let you know about the exciting things happening at our school.

A holistic learning environment that equips students for life is just as important as academic instruction. Several events and activities have been planned to improve your child's academic experience and give them a chance to discover their passions and talents, including field trips and a pep rally to support our CTK teams.

Many of our students have had or will have the opportunity to go on field trips this Spring. Our middle school Science classes attend the Virginia Symphony Orchestra, 3rd and 4th grade went to the Jamestown Settlement, and our Spanish 2 class went to the local Hispanic radio station, 103.3 La Selecta! We are excited to have a few other trips in the works for our students, including the 8th grade field trip to Washington DC with our friends from Star of the Sea, in Virginia Beach.

Your child's education is a lifelong learning, development, and evolution process. We urge you to stay in touch with your child's teachers and actively participate in their education.

Every child can achieve greatness, given the right support and direction. Let's encourage our kids to fulfill their potential and positively influence the world by working together.

Thank you for your constant support and prayers for our school. I encourage you to continue to support our work as we advance our mission to elevate, educate and empower our deserving students. There is no greater investment in forming our future saints than a Catholic education!

We thank you for entrusting your children to us and for the sacrifices you make each day to send your child(ren) to Christ the King Catholic School.

Pax Ominibus,
Kim Versprille Callahan, Ed.S.
Principal, Christ the King Catholic School
