April 30, 2023 | Fourth Sunday of Easter

Acts 2:14a, 36-41 | 1 Pt 2:20b-25 | Jn 10:1-10

Written by
THE FAITHFUL

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

There is much we could ponder in today's Scriptures, but the verses that stood out for me are these: "If you are patient when you suffer for doing what is good, this is a grace before God. For to this you have been called." I have a hard enough time keeping my inner child under wraps when I suffer due to my own sinfulness or incompetence, and Peter is telling me to be patient when I suffer for doing what is good? Well, yes - "because Christ also suffered for [us], leaving an example that [we] should follow in his footsteps." And the clarity of this truth hits me smack in the face. Doing what is good means we are loving another, in some way; we are doing good, for good. We are engaging in self-sacrifice, and some form of suffering is inherent to that. But here's the thing: it's an oddly joyful kind of suffering because it produces good fruit and directs our thoughts and vision to the one who is present among us as "the shepherd and guardian of [our] souls." Let us pray for the ability to see each moment of suffering for doing good as "a grace before God."

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

At this point in the Easter season, we might think, "Why can't we focus more on the joy of Jesus' resurrection and less on the suffering that preceded it?" Well, we certainly can ... but we would lose a great part of the Paschal Mystery. We don't embrace the cross for the sake of suffering in itself. We come to the crucifixion to pass through it. We are an Easter people living in a Good Friday world. There's no avoiding suffering in our lives, but the Good News of Jesus Christ is that he has redeemed that suffering. He has given us victory over death and is - quite literally - the way to eternal life. In the Gospel Jesus says, "Whoever enters through me will be saved ... I came so that they might have life and have it more abundantly." He is our shepherd and we know his voice. During this Eastertide we have an extraordinary opportunity to attend to that voice in a particular way, and to think about how we might be hearing it in a new way this year.

ACT Is there a charity you have been meaning to call to volunteer your time? Is there a neighbor who might be able to use a helping hand? Is there a friend or family member who has fallen out of favor and you just know it's the right thing to do to get in touch? Act this week. Sacrifice just a bit for the sake of good.

Greetings Parishioners, Parents, Friends,

I can't believe that May is already here! We have several things coming up this month. Please look over the calendar!

We are also celebrating our teachers this week. I am grateful for their hard work. To completely rework what teaching looks like, to work tirelessly to connect to students and families, and to do it with passion, flexibility, and grace shows me how deeply invested they are in teaching and nurturing our 207 students.

Thank you for your constant support and prayers for our school. I encourage you to continue to support our work as we advance our mission to elevate, educate and empower our deserving students. There is no greater investment in forming our future saints than a Catholic education!

First Communion 2023

May 2nd – Rehearsal @ 6 PM

First Communion will be May 7th @ 8:30 AM

The May Crowning of Mary will begin @ 9:45 PM.

Parents MUST attend the rehearsal with their child.

Want to integrate prayer into your family's life in an easy and creative way?

The Family Prayer Jar is a simple jar that holds different prayer sticks for your family to pull from. Every morning before you go to school, while doing laundry, or cleaning up the dishes from dinner, anyone can walk past the Family Prayer Jar, pull out a prayer stick with a prayer prompt on it, and pray a quick prayer for whomever or whatever is printed on the stick. For example, "Pray for someone in your family," or "Pray for someone who is hungry," or "Pray for a friend". The options are endless.

To create, you will need a few items:

- A jar (like a glass Mason jar)
- A list of prayer prompts (any number you'd like)
- Large popsicle sticks (one prayer per stick)
- A glue stick
- Materials to decorate your jar
- Scissors

To assemble, print out the prayer prompts and cut them into rectangular shapes. Then, glue one prayer prompt to each popsicle stick. Then, decorate your jar however you wish. You can use scrapbook paper, small pom poms, glitter, etc... Finally, place your prayer sticks inside your jar and place the jar in a high traffic area of your house – on your kitchen table, on a table in your living room, near the front door, etc...
