Families with Young Children

Welcome to Christ the King!

Children are especially close to the heart of Jesus so don't feel you have to stifle those wiggles and giggles. Children learn liturgical behavior by copying you, so please participate and try to sit where they can see what is happening.

If your child should become verbally or physically restless, please quietly step out and utilize the chairs that have been placed in the Commons just for you. When your child has calmed, please return to your pew.

Do not give up!
You are welcome here, always.

During the month of November, the Church especially remembers all those who have died. She commends the souls to God who gave witness to their faith and their belief in the future resurrection with Jesus Christ.

During the month of November, the BOOK OF THE NAMES OF THE DEAD will be on the long table in the Commons. All are invited to write the names of any family member or friend who has died on the pages of the book.

During the Universal Prayer/Prayer of the Faithful, we will pray each week for all those whose names are inscribed in the book. We hope that seeing the names will help us to recall the lives of our faithful departed and so add their individual prayers to those who have lost a loved one. May God grant all the faithful departed Eternal Life in Heaven with the Trinity and the Communion of the Saints.

On All Souls Day, we especially remember all parish members who have died during the past year: Ricardo Asban, Victor Chapman, Roberta DeMeo, Philip Escudra, Donald Hornick, Roberto Ramos, Georges Sama, Carole Scoble, and Catherine Taggart.

Altar Server Training will be held on Sunday, November 12th from 9:45 to 10:45 AM for ALL current and new servers to prepare for our feast day and the new liturgical year.

CTK's Legion of Mary

Meets on Tuesdays @ 7:15 PM in Ashland House

New members are always welcome!

THE FAITHFUL

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

We all want to feel special and be noticed. We see it in Adam and Eve's decision to eat the fruit in the garden after the snake promises "your eyes will be opened and you will be like gods." (Gen 3:5) The scribes and the Pharisees in today's Gospel certainly appear to fall into this category of wanting to be noticed: "All their works are performed to be seen," Jesus says. To be clear, we ARE each unique children of God: chosen by him and called by name. We are "wonderfully made" by the Lord (Ps 139:14), and that alone makes us valuable beyond measure. The problem arises when we begin to see our value as something we are responsible for on our own. We no longer give glory to God and acknowledge him as the fount of all good things. Instead, we are tempted to take credit for ourselves – that was the error of the scribes and the Pharisees, and it is one against which we should guard ourselves.

PRAY The Catechism calls humility the "foundation of prayer." (CCC 2559) Let us pray this week for the humility to do God's will without any praise or recognition. Let us ask the Holy Spirit for wisdom to know what the Lord wants from us and to joyfully fulfill that call even if it means working in the shadows where no one will notice.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Today's readings are instructive and, frankly, a good reminder that as God's beloved children baptized into Christ, we are called to a higher standard. What is this higher standard? First, it entails "[giving] thanks to God unceasingly," as St. Paul said in today's reading. It also involves practicing what we preach in a way the Pharisees do not. At the heart of Jesus' message today is telling us, his followers, how we are meant to live. We are to follow Jesus' words and strive to imitate his actions with humility and love. Does this mean loving unconditionally? It does. Does this mean not seeking places of honor but rather having a servant's attitude? It does. Are these postures and attitudes that come naturally to us as human beings? As descendants of Adam and Eve? Perhaps not. But if we wish to make Jesus the master of our lives, let us discern where we can be serving others better and putting our energy into the work of building God's kingdom.

Greetings, parishioners, families, and friends,

I would like to congratulate our Girls Middle School Volleyball Team on a great season! We are very proud of your accomplishments. Congratulations to our six 8th-grade girls who were such a big part of our team this year. Thank you for being so supportive towards your teammates! Thank you to the Luettel family for coaching and guiding our girls to such a successful season!

We are asking parents to be honest and vigilant about their children's well-being and we are depending on them to help make common sense decisions regarding their children's health. We have seen a rise in recent weeks in student and teacher illnesses. Students and employees are expected to remain at home when they are sick. The school will promptly send children and employees home when they display symptoms of illness. Parents are expected to monitor health concerns at home. In determining when students may return to school after an illness, schools will follow their standard illness exclusion policy, fever, and symptom-free for 24 hours without medication.

We have a very busy November, so look over the calendar below.

Families, thank you for partnering with us to educate your children. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact the school office or email me directly at kcallahan@ctkparish.org.

Take care, everyone!

Kim V. Callahan, Principal
