We were created with a thirst for God.

Families with Young Children

Welcome to Christ the King!
 Children are especially close to the heart of Jesus so don't feel you have to stifle those wiggles and giggles. Children learn liturgical behavior by copying you, so please participate and try to sit where they can see what is happening.

If your child should become verbally or physically restless, please quietly step out and utilize the chairs that have been placed in the Commons just for you. When your child has calmed, please return to your pew.

Do not give up!
 You are welcome here, always.

November 12, 2023 | Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Wis 6:12-16 | 1 Thes 4:13-18 | Mt 25:1-13

Written by
THE

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

I'll always remember that first Easter after my Dad passed away. It was when the promise of the resurrection truly hit home. Sure, I had always believed in heaven and that everyone had the possibility of spending eternity there, but until my Dad died, it had all been theoretical. Now, it was personal. Someone I loved deeply had left this world, but because of Christ's sacrifice, he had the opportunity to go to paradise, someplace where we will hopefully be reunited someday. I believe that's what St. Paul is talking about in today's second reading. We do "not grieve like the rest, who have no hope." We have hope! We have hope for our family, for our friends – for our very selves! – that we will rise again and spend eternity with the Lord and with those we love. Paul writes elsewhere, "Where, O death, is your sting?" (1 Cor 15:55) The sting of death is sin, Paul says, but Christ has won the victory over it. In being baptized into Christ, we share in that victory, and we are inheritors of the promise of eternal life that comes from death's defeat.

PRAY The ten virgins needed oil for their lamps to be ready for the bridegroom, but we need a clean heart and a steadfast spirit, as Psalm 51 tells us. (12) We get that by setting aside regular time for prayer and making a point to regularly receive the sacraments, including the reception of the body and blood of Jesus in the Eucharist and his forgiveness within the sacrament of reconciliation. Making time for the Lord now will mean we are ready for his return later.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

The parable in today's Gospel is a reminder that while Christ has opened the gates of heaven for us, we must be ready to accept that gift and walk through them. In the parable of the ten virgins, we see how all fell asleep while waiting for the bridegroom to arrive. When he did show up, five were ready with oil for their lamps while five were sent scurrying to buy some. As a result, those who were not ready missed the opening of the doors and were locked out of the wedding feast. "Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour," Jesus admonishes us. Are you awake? Will you be ready to enter the wedding feast when the door is opened to you? There is nothing wrong with enjoying God's creation and gifts here on earth, but we must guard against getting so caught up in the things of this world that we forget to prepare for the next.

Thanksgiving is Thursday, November 23rd

We will have Mass @ 8:30 AM and it will be livestreamed.

St. Columba Ecumenical Ministries is a nonprofit organization dedicated to helping those who are homeless and low-income. During the Month of November, we will be collecting:

Food for Holiday Baskets

Boxed: stuffing, instant potatoes, Jiffy corn muffin mix, dessert mix

Canned: corn, green beans, sweet potatoes, cranberry sauce, fruit and hams

Frozen 10-12 lb. turkeys and Fresh or Frozen hens

For more information, please contact Alicia at 757-627-6748 or visit their website: www.stcolumbaministries.com

During the month of November, the Church especially remembers all those who have died. She commends the souls to God who gave witness to their faith and their belief in the future resurrection with Jesus Christ.

During the month of November, the BOOK OF THE NAMES OF THE DEAD will be on the long table in the Commons. All are invited to write the names of any family member or friend who has died on the pages of the book.

During the Universal Prayer/Prayer of the Faithful, we will pray each week for all those whose names are inscribed in the book. We hope that seeing the names will help us to recall the lives of our faithful departed and so add their individual prayers to those who have lost a loved one. May God grant all the faithful departed Eternal Life in Heaven with the Trinity and the Communion of the Saints.

On All Souls Day, we especially remember all parish members who have died during the past year: Ricardo Asban, Victor Chapman, Roberta DeMeo, Philip Escudra, Donald Hornick, Roberto Ramos, Georges Sama, Carole Scoble, and Catherine Taggart.

Greetings, parishioners, families, and friends,

It was great to see our parents at conferences. Thank you for being an active part of your child's education. Please use the information shared with you at your child's meeting to plan academic and behavior goals with your child for the next nine weeks.

I also wanted to share exciting news about our Raise the Roof campaign. As you may know, we have been working hard to raise funds for the much-needed replacement of our school building. Last week, I had the privilege of spending the day on the school's roof as part of our fundraising efforts. I am happy to report that we raised a significant amount of money, and we are well on our way to achieving our goal. Be sure to check out our feature on WAVY 10. If you or anyone you know would like to donate, please visit our website: <https://ctkparish.org/special-events/>.

We are asking parents to be honest and vigilant about their children's well-being and are depending on them to help make common sense decisions regarding their children's health. We have seen a rise in recent weeks in student and teacher illnesses. Students and employees are expected to remain at home when they are sick. The school will promptly send children and employees home when they display symptoms of illness. Parents are expected to monitor health concerns at home. In determining when students may return to school after an illness, schools will follow their standard illness exclusion policy, fever and symptom-free for 24 hours without medication.

Families, thank you for partnering with us to educate your children. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact the school office or email me directly at kcallahan@ctkparish.org.

Take care, everyone!

Kim V. Callahan,
Principal
