Holy Communion - Part 2

Role of Priest and Extraordinary Ministers

The reception of Holy Communion at Mass is "the source and summit of the Christian Life" (CCC 1324).

This is part 2 of a three-part series on Holy Communion. This week we will focus on how to receive this most precious sacrament. Next week we will discuss how to prepare for the sacrament and who can receive it.

As active, participating Catholics in the Mass, we have several choices that we can make as we go up to receive Holy Communion. The choices you make are personal and do not have to be justified to anyone. All are equally correct per Church teachings and documents.

We can choose whether to receive the sacrament in our hands or on the tongue. The most common form, since Vatican II, is in the hands. You also have the option of receiving the Precious Blood from a shared chalice.

Most choose to remain standing when receiving the sacrament, but you do have the option of kneeling. Please be mindful not to trip the person behind you if you choose to kneel.

And lastly, there are some who prefer to receive the Precious Body from the priest or deacon rather than an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion. If that is your preference, exit your pew and walk to the back of the church and join the line leading to one of these two ministers.

And remember, "That more perfect form of participation in the Mass whereby the faithful, after the priest's communion, receive the Lord's Body from the same sacrifice, is warmly recommended" (CCC 1288).

Written by THE

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

All this talk about wisdom in today's readings ... why should we care? Born of a familiarity with the heart of God, wisdom is a virtue that grants us discernment to know right from wrong and to follow God's plan. It is so important to the life of the disciple that it is a gift given to us by the Holy Spirit. In our first reading from - notice - the Book of Wisdom, the author, likely expressing the sentiments of King Solomon, praises and esteems wisdom above everything else. Prized over money, health, or beauty, wisdom brings together "all good things." If wisdom is so valuable, we must follow Solomon's lead and seek it. Where do we find wisdom? In the second reading from Hebrews, we learn that we can seek wisdom in the word of God. God's word penetrates "between soul and spirit" and is "able to discern reflections and thoughts of the heart." Therefore, immersing ourselves in God's word allows us to discern between right and wrong and choose the path most pleasing to God.

ACT Like Solomon, we, too, can pray for wisdom. Read Scripture prayerfully, asking God to help you understand his Word and grant you the gift of wisdom. When you come across Scripture verses that are especially meaningful to you, write them out and put them in prominent places in your home. This will help you keep God's word ever before you.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

We become familiar with God's word by reading Scripture and by turning to him in prayer. Prayer, Scripture, and the sacraments are living encounters with Jesus through which we get to know the wisdom of his heart. Still, we are faced with many distractions along the way. What distracts us? Like the rich man in our Gospel, are we distracted by wealth? Or does our desire for health or beauty keep us from the wisdom of God? Although countless temptations in our world can draw us away from pursuing God's wisdom, if we remain close to God, we invite him to help us in our weakness. As Jesus assures his disciples in the Gospel, we can be confident in God's help: "For human beings it is impossible, but not for God. All things are possible for God." If we seek him and place our trust in him, our lives will begin to reflect his wisdom and communicate it to the world.
