Welcome to Christ the King! Children are especially close to the heart of Jesus so don't feel you have to stifle those wiggles and giggles. Children learn liturgical behavior by copying you, so please participate and try to sit where they can see what is happening.

If your child should become verbally or physically restless, please quietly step out and utilize the chairs that have been placed in the Commons just for you.

When your child has calmed, please return to your pew.

Do not give up! You are welcome here, always.

March 30, 2025
Fourth Sunday of Lent

Jos 5:9a, 10-12 | 2 Cor 5:17-21 | Lk 15:1-3, 11-32

Written by
THE FAITHFUL
DISCIPLE

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

We await with anticipation holidays and holiday parties – but do we look forward to the day after? To the cleanup, the back-to-the-grind, the business-as-usual? Jesus’ parable in today’s Gospel recounts the lavish celebration of the father who rejoices at the homecoming of his wayward son. We rightly recognize in the father’s mercy the abundant forgiveness of our heavenly Father. But have we ever considered what happened the next day? The son, accustomed to his independence and dissolute life, is once again in his father’s house. He must live according to his father’s rules and demonstrate the sincerity of his repentance by faithfully carrying out his duties. There is work to be done – crops to be harvested, perhaps. As the weeks and months pass without another fatted calf for feasting, the son might ask if his father’s love has waned. And although we may sympathize with his unease, the certainty of his father’s goodness must be, for the prodigal son and for us, the guarantee of his steadfast love.

PRAY

With so many opportunities for gratification at our fingertips, it is easy to become restless and to seek happiness in distractions. This week, find an image of Jesus or a Scripture verse about God’s love and keep it with you as you work, study, or carry out monotonous tasks. When you’re tempted to leave your duties aside out of boredom, take a moment instead to praise and thank God for his love.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

In our relationship with God, we will likely experience moments when our Father’s love is keenly felt. Perhaps we will be overwhelmed with peace when we return to him in the sacrament of confession. Perhaps we will be struck by a verse of Scripture during a moment of prayer. But most of our days will look more like the prodigal son’s “day after” than the festivities which marked his return. We know, however, that if the weeks that followed were comparatively boring, his father’s love had lost none of its warmth or vitality. Similarly, in the days when God seems quiet, when our prayers seem to drift into space or our hearts are distracted with the concerns of everyday life, we must not despair of the Father’s love. Nor can we suppose that our happiness can be found outside of his fold. We abide under the care of our Father who lovingly calls us to himself with every circumstance he places before us. To believe this, even when the festivities are over, is to live by faith.

2025 Annual Diocesan Appeal:
*Sharing His Love with Others

The parishioners of Christ the King have always been very generous in their support of the Annual Diocesan Appeal. Our goal in 2024 was $15,288 and we raised $23,561. Our parish receives a percentage of the funds that are donated and in 2024, we received $7,194.10 which was used to offset our operating expenses! We hope everyone will continue to support this appeal and enable the Diocese to continue to support its ongoing programs and parishes. Please prayerfully consider how you can help this year and respond either online by scanning this QR Code or completing one of the envelopes in the church.

Office Phone Working!!!

We ask for your continued patience as we try to fix our phones. We now have a single working phone line. If you get a busy signal or no answer, please call back later during office hours. Fr. Augustine, as usual, can be reached for sick calls at the rectory phone as posted in the bulletin. Thank you.

Discounts available for those who sign-up by March 31st.
Young ladies ages 12 and up are welcome to join us!
